NATIONAL GREYHOUND ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT AND AUTHORIZED SIGNATURE CARD

The undersigned accepts membership in the National Greyhound Association and agrees to be bound by and subject to the Constitution, By-laws, Code of Rules of the Association and the established policies of the NGA's Board Of Directors and their agents. This agreement shall continue so long as the annual membership fee is paid for each successive year, unless membership is otherwise suspended or revoked. The signature of the undersigned (individually or as registered agent for a kennel, partnership, association or corporation) shall be maintained by the NGA to assist its staff during the transaction of business with the Association by this member. However, the NGA shall not be liable for any damages of any kind whatsoever that may result from any false, fraudulent or forged signature on an NGA registration application. NGA shall honor the decision of a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to legal ownership.

The undersigned also agrees to assure that Greyhounds under their record ownership are humanely cared for. Should a Greyhound registered to the undersigned be placed in an adoption program, or otherwise require care or attention, that results in a financial expense to the Association or its affiliate, the American Greyhound Council, Inc., the record owner hereby agrees to immediately refund the Association for said expense.

The address listed below, or any subsequent address change or changes submitted to NGA, shall be considered the member's current address for the purpose of receiving any official notifications from the Association. Official notification shall be limited to ballots, dues renewal notices, notifications of hearing and official statements from the Association.
